

PROF. MANUEL HASSASSIAN

Prof. Manuel Hassassian is a Professor of International Politics and Relations. He is currently the Executive Vice President of Bethlehem University. His areas of specialization are: Comparative Politics with emphasis on Middle East Politics and Armenian Nationalist Movement and Political theory. He is published in both areas extensively, and his latest books are: "Palestine: Factionalism In the National Movement 1919-1939", (English) and "The Historical Evolution of the Armenian Question and the Conflict over Nagorno Karabagh" (English) "Citizenship in the Middle East" published by Syracuse University Press (2000). He has published extensively in academic Journals domestically regionally and internationally on the PLO, the Peace Process, Democracy and Elections, Refugees and Civil Society in Palestine.

Professor Hassassian is a member of the editorial board of the Arab Political Science Journal as well as the Palestine-Israel Journal, in addition he was editor in Chief of Bethlehem University Journal.

Professor Hassassian is a board member of the Center of Non-Violence in Palestine, also he is a member of the Arab Association for Human Rights.

Professor Hassassian was appointed by the PA to the General Secretary of the Bethlehem District Elections commission 1996.

Furthermore, he had been appointed Consultant to the Palestinian Ministerial Higher Commission on Church Affairs. He had been participating in many IIInd Track diplomacy, and had been visiting scholar to many American universities, lecturing on Models and Practices of Conflict Resolution and Management. In September 1996, he was awarded an honorary doctorate from the "Universite de Reims", France for his academic contributions in the field of political science.

Professor Hassassian is the head of the Jerusalem Task Force in the Negotiations Affairs department.

He is the President of the Rectors' Conference at the Palestinian Ministry of Higher Education. He is also the president of the Palestinian/European Academic Cooperation in Education (PEACE) since 2001, (Location: UNESCO - PARIS).

Professor Hassassian is currently the Ambassador of Palestine to the U.K.